

OUR INFORMATION SECURITY POLICY

Within the scope of establishing an Information Security Management System (ISMS) related to ANGST PFISTER GELİŞMİŞ TEKNİK ÇÖZÜMLER ANONİM ŞİRKETİ;

- In order to comply with the principles of confidentiality, integrity and accessibility of information, which are the requirements of the Information Security Management System, to establish the risk management methodology for our company, customers and suppliers by identifying information assets in our company, identifying risks and taking control measures for risks,
- To protect the confidentiality of information belonging to our customers, to ensure compliance with standards and legal regulations,
- To provide the necessary resources for hardware, software, training and other controls necessary to reduce information security risks and to ensure their continuity,
- To ensure awareness raising, training and encouragement of all personnel and business partners to ensure their participation in and compliance with the ISMS as required by the holistic approach of information security,
- To control, monitor and review the efficiency of ISMS through internal and external audits, and to continuously harmonise and improve the system;
ISMS policy.

GENERAL MANAGER

